Finnesburg Fragment in which Hnæf and his 60 retainers are besieged at "Finn's fort" and attempt to hold off their attackers. The surviving text is tantalisingly brief and allusive, but comparison with other references in Old English poetry, notably Beowulf, suggests that it deals with a conflict between Danes and Frisians in Migration-Age Frisia.

an Old English poem that tells of a prince named Hnæf and his sixty men who are under attack, and must repel the attack while in a great hall during the Battle of Finnsburg. The fragment that has been found is most likely a later retelling of the poem. It is possible that the completed poem is approximately three hundred lines
