Power up your investment portfolio and earn more than you ever thought possible Have you been investing for a while but wish it could give you better returns? Are you looking to expand your portfolio beyond stocks and bonds? Do you want to invest in a stable, yet high-return market? If so, commercial real estate may make a good addition to your portfolio. Commercial real estate may seem like something only institutional investors or millionaires get into. Yes, they cost a lot more than single-family residential properties, but they also give you the opportunity to make a lot more. According to the National Council of Real Estate Investment Fiduciaries (NCREIF) Property Index, commercial real estate has made an average of 12.7% annually over the past 15 years compared to 8.8% in the S&P 500. And you don't have to be a millionaire to get involved in commercial real estate. There are a variety of ways you can get financing, without getting yourself into millions of dollars in debt. Although there are risks to any investment, with commercial real estate, your risk is cushioned by multiple and better-quality tenants and longer-term leases. Not only that, but you also have more control over how you mitigate those risks. To know more about what is involved in commercial real estate investing, refer to this useful introduction to commercial real estate that will help you make the right investment decisions for your portfolio.
